III - ACTIVITIES

Item No. 11:

Electronic Industries Association of Japan (EIA-J):

Registrant researched, drafted and filed a written statement on behalf of the Electronic Industries Association of Japan, January 15, 1980, with the International Finance Subcommittee of the U.S. Senate, Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs Committee and also appeared as a witness before that Subcommittee to render testimony on the same date.

Registrant and/or his staff furnished reportorial and informational services covering developments of interest in the U.S. consumer electronic products market and industry. Testimony by various witnesses before the Subcommittee focused on International Trade Commission Report #332-102 on Integrated Circuits was monitored and reported by Registrant and/or his staff.

Implementation of the Executive Department Reorganization Plan in administering U.S. Trade laws, including personnel changes, were analyzed and reported. Registrant and/or staff reported on March 11, 1980 hearing held by the International Trade Subcommittee of the Senate Finance Committee on proposed amendments to the 1980 Antidumping Act.

Hearings held by the International Trade Commission on March 5 and 6, 1980 involving investigation #TA-203-6 to determine whether or not the orderly marketing agreement on color television receivers and subassemblies import should be continued were also monitored and reported.

Registrant generally assisted and provided consultation services in connection with the seminar held on March 25, 1980 entitled, "Quality Control--Japan's Key to Productivity" sponsored by the Electronic Industries Association of Japan.

JAPAN AUTOMOBILE MANUFACTURER'S ASSOCIATION (JAMA):

Registrant and/or his staff furnished on a subscription basis reportorial and informational services covering a wide range of administrative actions, Congressional activities, and developments in the automotive industry and market including, in particular, the series of hearings held in the Congress on Chrysler Motors and the various measures contemplated to assist the firm financially. Covered by Registrant and/or his staff were the hearings held on Chrysler by the Economic Stabilization Subcommittee of a House Banking Committee.

Regarding U.S. emissions control, Registrant and/or his staff monitored and reported on hearings held by the Environmental Protection Agency on industry requests for waiver of the carbon monoxide emissions standard.

Also reviewed and analyzed and reported by Registrant and/or his staff were various developments reported in the press and trade journals relating to automobile imports from Japan including the pending legal review of the tariff classification practice relating to small truck cab chassis imports from Japan. Also reported on transaction value basis of duty assessment and the impact of new antidumping and countervailing duty laws expected to be implemented effective July 1, 1980.

JAPAN FISHERIES ASSOCIATION:

Registrant and/or his staff furnished reportorial and informational services relating to executive reorganization of the agencies involved in administration of the trade laws. In addition, the International Trade Commission's affirmative injury determination in the groundfish case was reviewed, analyzed, and reported to the client. In addition, thereto, policy pronouncements and activities of the National Oceanatic and Atmospheric Administration were reported.

GOVERNMENT OF JAPAN:

(a) Japan Trade Center:

Registrant and/or his staff reported on U.S. industry and market developments with respect to bicycles, reorganized import trade administration authority, reviewed, analyzed and reported on the effectiveness of the new, amended trade laws and their probable impact, and other matters of interest to the client.

(b) U.S. - Japan Trade Council:

Registrant and/or his staff orally furnished information and judgement in response to inquiries from Susan McKnight of the Council with respect to the status of the various administrative proceedings involving such items as television receivers, cab chassis, customs classification review determination.

(c) Embassy of Japan:

Registrant and/or his staff reported on and analyzed developments in connection with foreign policy issues which the consensus of American press regards decisive in the 1980 presidential elections, analysis of developments and trends relating to Congressional involvement in U.S. foreign policy-making, press coverage on U.S. and Japan positions on Iranian oil purchases by Japan, reports on Senate Finance Trade Subcommittee hearings on various trade issues, International Trade Commission hearings on the orderly marketing agreement for color television receiver imports from Japan, Taiwan, and Korea, antidumping injury hearings on portable electric typewriters from Japan, Administration's position respecting the establishment of an export trading company and revision of the Webb-Pomerene Act, and survey of technical customs law developments, and governmental, industrial, and marketing developments respecting semiconductors.
